Jerusalem (Blue Guides)

Synopsis

This travel guide offers information for long or short visits for pilgrims, tourists or scholar-travellers. Seventeen routes describe the quarters of the Old City, the suburbs, Bethany and Bethlehem. There is a practical information section, including varied accommodation and a calendar of religious festivals and holidays. Supplementary essays cover the city's population, geology and topography, prehistory and history. Route and area maps, and more than 50 monument and museum plans are included. The author has carried out archaeological excavation and field survey work in Jordan, Iran, Lebanon and Italy.

Customer Reviews

This book is not like other guide books. It doesn't cover restaurants and hotels in Jerusalem. The guide book is a historical guide through the history of the holy city. It covers the history of churches, mosques, jewish holy places, city walls, etc. in a way that makes other guide books treatment of the historical data look like a childrens book!!!!THIS IS THE MOST THOROUGH AND IN DEPTH GUIDE BOOK ON JERUSALEM WHICH I HAVE READ ABOUT THE FASCINATING HISTORY OF THE CITY!!!! am looking forward to the new edition of this "must" which is going to be published in 2002.
