CYCLADES: The Portraits Of The Islands (Trips In The Aegean Sea)

Synopsis

Whether you're looking for information, travel guides, history facts, harbors and tips, this 360 pages eBook is a complete guide to the famous archipelago in the Aegean Sea. Nearly 2,300 pieces of land – islands, rocky islets and solitary rocks – in a sea area of 8,000 sq km. Twenty-four islands are inhabited consisting a whole, geographically, historically, culturally, and administratively, although each island has its own characteristics and history. The eBook is divided into three parts:- The first part contains information regarding the Aegean Sea and the Cyclades (geological genesis, morphology, products and economy, folk architecture and art, climate and winds). - The second part travels through the centuries to the history of the islands.- The third part contains the portrait of each island with all the elements that last over time (location, area, coastline, nearby islets, getting there, getting around, yachts mooring, history, sightseeing, beaches, hiking, feasts, local cuisine and products).
