Customer Reviews

The best thing about this book was that it followed three couples with 3 different budget ranges (modest, moderate and luxurious) through some of their wedding planning decisions. Other than that, there were no new tips, advice or ideas mentioned anywhere in this book that those of us who have read a couple of budget books, done a google search and read a magazine article or 2 have not already learned for ourselves. Bridal bargains was way better, more creative, detailed and had ideas that many people have never heard or thought of. This book didn't contain a single new idea or give any substantial assistance in planning a wedding on a small, moderate or large budget.

perfect for planning my wedding, although if you are doing a destination wedding like I did, there isn't much in here. arrived on time and in great condition.

Definitely recommend this book to anyone planning a wedding on a budget. It's a small book which makes it easy to travel. Quick read, lots of great tips and planning tools.

Very pleased with item

Great book. Very easy to understand. Written in order sequence of when you need to get things done.

I'm helping a friend plan a wedding, and I also have my own future wedding in mind. I've been reading a couple of different books, but this was the first one that I thought would help with money saving tips. I think that this book was too general, and didn't quite give enough specific examples on how to save money. I also didn't like the examples of the different couples and their budget levels, I think that was pretty corny.
