The Lung Cancer Warriors' Cookbook

Synopsis

The Lung Cancer Warriors' Cookbook™ was inspired by Frances Schembri to raise awareness and much needed funding for Lung Cancer research as there are no early detection tests. Fran was a lifelong never smoker. She passed away from Stage 4 metastatic Non-Small Cell Lung Cancer, after fighting hard for 16 months. Fran was passionate about removing the stigma associated with Lung Cancer because it can affect anyone. It does not discriminate between males and females, adults and children, smokers, non-smokers or never smokers. She wanted to make people aware that if you have lungs, you can get Lung Cancer. It's not just a smoker's disease! Fran's dream to dedicate a cookbook to Lung Cancer was continued by her daughters, Jessica and Rebecca Dunn, after she passed away. It was completed in her memory. The Lung Cancer Warriors' Cookbook™ is a culmination of recipes from Lung Cancer patients, loved ones, carers, medical staff, advocates and so many more from all over the world. It is a journey of each person's story and how Lung Cancer has touched their lives. By buying this cookbook, you are supporting the Lung Cancer Network Australia with their work in raising awareness, providing education and support, and continuing imperative research for Lung Cancer. All of the profits raised from the cookbook will be donated to the Lung Cancer Network Australia, in memory of Frances Schembri.

I love everything about this book. The concept, everything. My Mother is in it and she passed away around 7 months ago. I'm so thankful to have this book, and I can't wait to make her recipe!
