Good book

This book is a great help to understanding the basics of entertainment law. The chapters are broken down in a way that makes the material easy to understand and really conducive to retaining the information. Each chapter begins with an overview and ends with a summary. Key words/phrases throughout the text are put in bold and then simplified in the margins for quick review. Case studies in each chapter give you a sense for how to apply the concepts in the real world. Great book. Highly recommend it.
