Paganini: Variations On One String On Theme By Rossini For Cello And Piano

Synopsis

Theme-and-variation pieces occupy a very large chunk of Paganini's compositional catalogue. This particular set of variations was composed on a stirring theme from Rossini's tragic opera, Mose in Egitto (Moses in Egypt). In the opera, the tune is sung by Moses on the shore of the Red Sea, who prays for deliverance from Pharaoh's pursuing army; his prayer is triumphantly answered, and the bad guys meet their doom in the water. Requiring many of the same technical acrobatics as Paganini's other works, this piece makes a great recital finale or encore! This edition is transcribed and edited by Pierre Fournier and published by the International Music Company. Difficulty: ASTA grade 5 NOTE: This item is for CELLO. For the violin version, please see item 1665 111. It is also available as a cello duet (see item 3309 106).

Perfect version, good fingerings, easy to read but only for very advanced cellists.

The book arrived on time and in a very good condition. This particular set of variations was composed on a stirring theme from Rossini's tragic opera, Mose in Egitto (Moses in Egypt) . My daughter loves it.

Good quality of print.
