The God Of Life

Synopsis

"My desire is that this book may help readers to know more fully the God of biblical revelation and, as a result, to proclaim God as the God of life." Who is God? Where is God? How are we to speak of God? Gutierrez looks at these classic questions through a review of the Bible, and his answers challenge all Christians to a deepening of faith.

Gustavo Gutiérrez, a Dominican theologian from Peru, is widely recognized as one of the preeminent voices of liberation theology. His books include A Theology of Liberation, On Job, We Drink from Our Own Wells, and The God of Life. McGraw-Hill authors represent the leading experts in their fields and are dedicated to improving the lives, careers, and interests of readers worldwide.

This is an incredible book filled with heart, knowledge, and putting our faith into action. Walking with others, being in solidarity, is no easy feat. I highly recommend it.

Great start for understanding liberation theology. Would recommend to others. "No one can love God and practice injustice..." - Gustavo Gutierrez.

V good

Liberating liberation theology from the perspective of a Catholic Latin American theologian. Rich slavers would hate you to free yourself from the chains of American dictatorships.

A lot of critiques of liberation theology unfairly characterize it as a 20th century invention by people with solely political motives. In this book Gutierrez demonstrates that the basic principles of liberation theology are not new at all. Rather, they are grounded in Biblical principles and a belief in "the God of life" who takes the side of those who unnecessarily suffer. An excellent book for those who are new to liberation theology.

horrible book binding, it fell apart in one week of careful handling.the book content is great, though, highly impressed with Sr Gutierrez
