Customer Reviews

The update makes excellent sense as a form of travel insurance when following thousands of acres of sometimes poorly marked and oftentimes totally unmarked roadways. The author's references to history, culture, landscapes and visitor options make this more than just a map from Point A to Point B.... Travelers, both seasoned and neophyte, as well as armchair tourists, will love this book because it provides thumbnail cultural histories as well as road warrior travel tips. --Indian Country Today
Native Roads should be in the vehicle of everyone who does any driving around in what we call Indian Country. --Tony Hillerman
A sure winner. Anyone traveling the Four Corners region will want a copy on the seat beside them. --The Tombstone Epitaph

Fran Kosik has lived in and traveled throughout the Navajo and Hopi Nations for more than 30 years.

Purchased this for a road trip through Navajo to Santa Fe. It was a great guide and the information added much to our travel experience.

Great info for traveling and studying native lands!

Excellent road guide plus loads of info . Excellent companion

A useful tool to catch every corner of beauty in Dinetha

Wow! what a great informative book. We are planning a trip this year that will travel so many of those Native Roads!

This will be very useful. My husband & I are former VISTA volunteers, and did training on the Navajo Reservation in the 60's. We plan to visit some of our old stomping grounds, and have plotted out our itinerary using Native Roads.

After I bought the book, I found I had bought it before.

This book helped a lot
