Modern History Lecturer Leicester University; Best-selling Access To History author and series editor.

I have been an IB History teacher for nearly 20 years and I rely heavily on the Access to History series. I have used Lynch's books on China, in particular this one as they combine the perfection combination of in-depth knowledge and student-accessible language. This book is essential for anyone trying to build an IB syllabus, especially one focused on Europe since Lynch's study of China provides an excellent "other region" option. I use this book successfully in conjunction with my own note taking guide.
