Teenage Christian At The Beach

Synopsis

Surf's up! When teenage Christians go to the beach, exciting things start to happen! TEENAGE CHRISTIAN AT THE BEACH includes five short stories—five paths along a windswept beach that lead to or away from God—the choice is theirs—and YOURS—to make! MIA discovers a world she never knew existed behind the boardwalk when Daniel, the best looking guy at a Gulf Coast beach, offers her first aid, but suddenly she must choose between two different worlds, two different friends, and two different gods. KRISTEN is without a date for the Sandcastle Prom, so a feisty little girl named Posey decides to find the dateless prom queen a proper “prince—but the King of Kings—Jesus Christ—has plans of His own for the dance. ANDREW regrets helping his friend, Brent, cheat in the Beach Idol contest by the shores of Lake Erie, but learns sometimes in life we must lose to win. ELISE sneaks behind her parents’ backs so she can enjoy a date with a famous tennis player at her family’s Hawaiian beach house, but then everything that could go wrong on her seaside date does! CHELSEA is caught between friends—Julio’s warnings about God and her friend Annette’s dream visions about a haunted lighthouse in Nova Scotia. One path leads to life on the beach and the other to death by the seashore—but does Chelsea sense danger in time to avoid trouble?

Customer Reviews

This book was outstanding. It showed that even through struggles, God is always there and provides friends to help us.

This book really encourages teenagers like me to stand for God Jesus Christ and not for the ruler of the depths of hell the devil.
