Anglo-Saxon Runes:: An Introduction

Synopsis

This comprehensive introduction to the 33-stave futhorc of the Anglo-Saxons explores both the history and the mythology of the runes, effectively bridging the gap between academic runology and the esoteric arts of divination and magic. For the beginner, it is a practical guide, offering ideas for learning the runes and incorporating them into everyday life. Included are basic meditation techniques and simple divination methods. For the more experienced rune-worker, this book gives a new (and perhaps challenging) look at rune-lore by examining the Old English Rune Poem from an historical and academic standpoint.
