Customer Reviews

This is a beautifully haunting coloring book. The pages are detailed and show several scenes of four of Poe's stories. It will be fun to color. Each page will keep you busy for more than one day.

This was my first Jade Summer coloring book, and I didn't really know what to expect. I was pleasantly surprised! The artwork is detailed, but not so detailed that you won't enjoy coloring it. Plenty of pages to color, based on Edgar Allen Poe's stories. The artwork is printed on one side, and the opposite side is solid black, so there's absolutely no worry about bleed-through or colors coming through the pages. I usually use colored pencils so this isn't a problem for me, but people who use gel pens seem to hate to see the bleed-through on the back of the page. I'm really glad the book is printed one-sided, though, as I personally cringe when pages are two-sided and I've made lumps and bumps all over the uncolored page from the pressure I used coloring the opposite side. As a bonus, this book came with a .pdf copy, so I can print my favorites onto heavier paper, if I wish, and color them again if I have new ideas or new skills I want to try out on a particular page! I'll be picking up more Jade Summer books!

This is one of the best coloring books I have bought in some time. Several pages and what feels like thick paper so it won't run, I really like this one and will continue to purchase in the future. Ty very much

I got this one for myself as I'm a huge Poe fan. My favorite pages so far are the Black Cat and the Raven (I actually had a beautiful black cat named Raven for this reason!) There's some repeated pages but that's ok because you can share them or do a different color scheme each time. Definitely going to be fun and I like the way the pages are set up so as not to bleed through. Artwork is creepy but not what I would call gory or gross so this would be good for older kids that like scary stuff. Overall looks like fun!

I am someone who's always liked coloring. These adult coloring books by Jade Summer are just wonderful! This Edgar Allan Poe book has wonderful pages from some of the most beloved Poe books. The artwork is wonderful and intricate enough for an adult. I am in love with Jade Summer's work. I also have the Victorian Fashion book and love it, too! If you like Poe's work, you'll enjoy coloring these beautiful visual interpretations.

Very detailed Edgar Allen Poe coloring book. I really have enjoyed this a detail this book has. The paper is thick and back side is blacked out. I highly recommend this book to all that enjoy horror and coloring books. Look forward to more books like this to come.

This is an excellent collection of black and white pages to color. It includes two of every image on bleed-proof paper. Images include realistic illustrations for Poe's "The Raven," "The Tell-Tale Heart," "The Black Cat," and "The Fall of the House of Usher." I highly recommend this coloring book for anyone who enjoys horror and art.

This is an amazing coloring book with incredible attention to detail. It features drawings from 4 different Poe stories and accurately represents each one. Every picture takes up the entire page and every page has a black background so you can use markers or other media that may soak or bleed through. The book has 2 copies of each picture. I see some reviews are upset by this, but I find it a plus. Each picture can be drawn in so many different ways, that you can be as creative as you want. Whether you use different color pencils for each picture or do one in pencil and another in marker, gel pen, etc. the possibilities are endless.
