Synopsis

This is the only English-language guidebook to focus exclusively on the world's only Grand Duchy, home to the rolling forests of the Ardennes, hill-top medieval castles, two entries on UNESCO Heritage Listings, and one of Europe's smallest wine-growing regions. From first-class accommodation and Michelin-starred restaurants, to hiking and youth hostelling, this thoroughly updated edition provides in-depth tips to suit every taste and budget. Expanded coverage includes new accommodation, restaurants, museums, walking and cycling routes, as well as details on the banking industry and day trips to neighboring countries.

“The secret of a good travel story is that it makes you want to book your ticket right now. That was my response after reading Tim Skelton's Complete Guide to Luxembourg.”
—Simon Calder, The Independent, Oct 2008

Tim Skelton is a freelance writer living in the Netherlands.

I wanted to visit the Grand Duche of Luxembourg again. Last time was in 1961. The book was truly helpful. It helped you get around using the trains and buses. You can buy a 4 euro card on the bus for a day and travel all over the place for four Euros. If you buy a 10 Euro Luxembourg Club Card, you get admission to General Patton's Museum, the Art Museums and Catacombs and other sites for free too. It is a great deal. I stayed at a Cottage room in Heiderscheid at Fox Den Camping

This is one of the only guide books dedicated to Luxembourg, and it is terrific. Most of the other guide books include Lux as an afterthought and tack some general Lux info on as extra chapters to Brussels...don't be fooled. The coverage for Lux in those books is very thin, and in the two others I have, make up less than 10% of the book. this, on the other hand, is 100% Luxembourg. Great info on local fairs, hidden dining gems, road trips, train schedules, weather...everything you want in a guide book. The author is knowledgeable, insightful, informative and manages to infuse some humor for good measure. Also lists tons of helpful web link for follow-up research. We are moving to Lux this year for work and after reading this book cover to cover, I really feel like I've already got a sense of the country and culture. If you're planning on visiting Luxembourg, this book is the one to get.

What a rare find! A very useful guide to a remarkable nation. We've read every page as we prepare for another jaunt in our favorite Grand Duchy.

as listed and on time

Great overall review with map of city and detailed hotel information.

Easy to use, concise travel book that gave us the information that we needed for a two-day visit to Luxembourg.

Toured Luxembourg and the guide was very informative. places of interest were clearly noted as well as shopping and lodging locations

Easy to carry and follow with all the facts easily layed out. Buy this book and enjoy your trip to Luxembourg.
