Kite Day: A Bear And Mole Story (Bear And Mole Stories)

Synopsis

On a windy spring day, what do Bear and Mole decide to do? Why, fly a kite, of course! But first they have to build one. They design, measure, and finally construct their kite. With a zoom, zoom, zoom the kite soars up, up, up in the air. But when a storm rumbles in --SNAP!--the kite string breaks! The chase is on as the two friends tear after their kite and find it in a tree, protecting a nest of baby birds from the rain. This sweet story makes a perfect read-aloud for preschoolers.

Read this at the library. Love the ending. Bought it along with a kite for my 3 yr old granddaughter. She's happy though that we have no trees nearby to lose her kite in!

My mild special needs preschool class likes Bear and Mole, but the ending of this book is a little unclear. Great illustrations, but ending will need to be explained.

Used this book for Kite day in Kindergarten countdown to the end of school and students loved it. Such a cute pair.

Purchased this as a Easter gift for a 5 year old little friend who recently discovered the fun of kite flying. His parents report that it was a big hit and also age appropriate.

Cute story and fun illustrations. Just what I wanted.

Very cute, easy to read book.

awesome book, very colorful. grandkids love it.

This easy to read book for 3-7 yr olds is very moves easily through the story's tale and is so colorful! I introduce it to my toddler class during circle time and their facial expressions were exciting with the turn of every page. After hearing and seeing the tale told; they had many questions. I enjoyed it just as much as my toddlers.
