What an adorable book to help introduce my 5 year old to the French language. It is also great for adults!

Best french book for a 3 year old!!

I really wanted to get this book for a friend's first-grade daughter, but scrolling through the preview I saw that "doctor" is translated "docteur"--a false cognate. "Docteur" is an academic degree; a "docteur en mÃ©decine" is called a "mÃ©decin." (Yes, you use the title "Docteur" before the last name, but you never say you have an appointment with a "docteur" or someone needs a "docteur.") Now I have to wonder what else isn't quite right in this book.

From Bonjour! to Au Revoir we loved this introduction to French. For kids who are curious about languages or love to travel, this is perfect. This book has simple format, bold illustrations and a fun selection of words shared in English and French. FIRST WORDS FRENCH is so much fun to page through and learn basic French words. A huge hit in our house.

Does not have the:Le, la, les, etc before each word.That's super disappointing.That's kind of important in the French language and by kind of, I mean very.
