Customer Reviews

"A great text for introductory courses. It covers pertinent information without overwhelming a student with too much in-depth information or concepts too advanced at this early stage in their academic studies." "The text is an excellent overview to the field for the student and [an] extremely useful game plan for the instructor of the course."

Marianne Woodside, Professor Emerita, was affiliated with the Human Services, Mental Health Counseling, and Counselor Education programs at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. She taught introduction to human services, case management, methods of helping, and foundations of counselor education, and supervises practicum and internship. Her primary research interests are international human services, human service education, and case management. Dr. Woodside has served on the editorial boards for Journal of Human Service Education, American Association for Counseling and Development Journal, and Tennessee Counseling Journal. Additionally, she served as vice-president of regional development and secretary of the National Organization for Human Services Education. Dr. Woodside has published a wide range of journal articles and has an extensive record of presentations at national and international meetings. Her many awards include the Distinguished Recognition Award from the Council for Standards in Human Service Education, the Professional Development Research Award from the National Organization for Human Services Education, the Helen B. Watson Outstanding Faculty Research Award, and the Educator's Hall of Honor Award. With Tricia McClam, Dr. Woodside is co-author of AN INTRODUCTION TO HUMAN SERVICES (9th Ed.), AN INTRODUCTION TO HUMAN SERVICES: CASES AND APPLICATIONS (8th Ed.), GENERALIST CASE MANAGEMENT: A METHOD OF HUMAN SERVICE DELIVERY (5th Ed.), PROBLEM SOLVING IN THE HELPING PROFESSIONS, HELPING PROCESS: ASSESSMENT TO TERMINATION, and INTERVIEWING: WHAT STUDENTS WANT TO KNOW. Dr. Woodside also wrote INTERNSHIP IN HUMAN SERVICES: HELPING STUDENTS FIND THEIR WAY (Sage). Tricia McClam, Professor Emeritus, was affiliated with the graduate programs in Mental Health Counseling (M.S.) and Counselor Education (Ph.D.) at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. She also taught for over 10 years in the undergraduate Human Service Program. Among the courses she taught are Cross Cultural Counseling, Formal Measurement, Basic Counseling Skills, and Case Management. Her research broadly deals with case management in human service delivery, professional development, and international human services. Dr. McClam has served as editor of International Education and co-editor of Human Service Education, both refereed journals. Included among her professional awards are the Helen B. Watson Outstanding Faculty Research Award in the College of Education, the Dean's Award for Service, a Certificate of Appreciation from the Council for Standards in Human Service Education, and the Miriam Clubok Award from the National Organization for Human Service Education. With Marianne Woodside, Dr. McClam is co-author of INTRODUCTION TO HUMAN SERVICES (9th Ed.), AN INTRODUCTION TO HUMAN SERVICES: CASES AND APPLICATIONS, GENERALIST CASE MANAGEMENT: A METHOD OF HUMAN SERVICE DELIVERY (5th Ed.), PROBLEM SOLVING IN THE HELPING PROFESSIONS, HELPING PROCESS: ASSESSMENT TO TERMINATION, and INTERVIEWING: WHAT EVERY STUDENT WANTS TO KNOW.

Its a book, its a college class and it was a mandatory read. Im not going to do cartwheels while I write this review.

This is a required textbook for my class. It is set up in easily outlined chapters. Easy to read, easy to learn the material. COURSE MATE PROS: The online code is worth it. Online gives you an eBook, that can be highlighted, or copied onto note cards. (for online study) There's an online audio version if you want to listen on the way to class. The COURSE MATE DRAWBACK; Avoid the crosswords puzzles! They randomly put a blank square at the end of the word, and empty spaces between words, if it is a two or three word answer. Do the number of squares in no way equals the number of letters in the word! Sometimes intersecting words will cross at a blank square too.

It is a good text book. My teachers first test was all questions about which president was in office when which things happened, this is not a history course book.

This book made me service humans.

Great book. I used it for my Human Services class through SNHU. I loved the class

Required for college

I knew this was a used book, but it looks like it went through a paint machine with all the highlights and marks, and it also looks like it went through a garbage disposal, not near the shape that I thought it would be. Would not rent this quality of book for the price that I did.

great book
