Good 3 in one. I believe the scores presented here are compiled from individual volumes published in the past. I always recalled in Billy the Kid--that NOTE--ushering in the Gun Battle--for my ears the most unsettling note Copland ever unleashed, still on Page 53 both in that borrowed individual score library book back in the day, as well as in here, now how it looks on paper. As well, though there is a 20-minute notification at the start of Appalachian Spring (the actual version I'm most familiar with runs about 25 minutes generally), it seems that the oft-unperformed "Martha" section before "Simple Gifts" is included here, as I couldn't immediately pair up the notes with the music. [Plz correct me if I'm mistaken]. And in Rodeo, it is fascinating to analyze the instrumentation breakdown, especially of "Hoedown" and "Buckaroo Holiday". Off the subject, a second thanx to my seller for providing a pristine, unbent, unscribbled-in copy.

Use this very often for study and reference. Great resource.

I found the score to be what I was looking for, and less expensive than purchasing directly from the publisher.
