Customer Reviews

Jess Moody pastored a Southern Baptist church in Hollywood for many years. Considered one of the best speakers in the Southern Baptist Convention, Moody is truly one of the most beloved storytellers of our age. Jess and his wife live in Mansfield, Texas.

Jess Moody, like the Energizer Bunny, just keeps going and going, telling great stories. I have been privileged to hear Jess Moody speak. He is not simply a preacher; he is an orator. His oratorical skills and artistry are transmitted to the pages of a book through the writing of "God, If You Have A Plan For My Life, Where Were You Last Thursday?" He paints beautiful stories with the pen. Some of the stories will bring a tear to the reader's eye or a lump in the throat, others will evoke a smile or a burst of laughter. Whatever the response, the reader will become so engrossed in the stories that reading the book will not leave one unaffected or unchanged. Each story is only a brief page or two and can be read in bits and pieces over days. However, I became so enchanted by each story, I couldn't wait a day or two to read on. I nearly finished the book in one sitting. I've read other books by Jess Moody. This one is his best!

Jess, you've done it again! In a world that causes us to develop calloused veneers to hide our hearts behind, you have offered a medicine chest of little "daily pills" that we can easily take, anytime of day or night, and dissolve away the contaminants and refresh the pliability that brings back the joy and tears of our emotions. In "God, if you have a plan for my life..." we see the very heart of Christ Himself, revealed through the lives of real people and told as only Jess Moody can tell their stories. Jess, may you live long and write often.
