Customer Reviews

Colorful and evocative. . . . Painter Ray Ellis and undersea explorer Robert Ballard team up to capture the beauty and diversity of America's Atlantic and Pacific coastlines. To my mind, Ellis's most captivating watercolors are those from Norfolk, Virginia; Key West, Florida, and, of course, the South Carolina Lowcountry. -- The Islander, October 1-7, 1998 For those who have not yet begun their watery explorations, lazily exploring these pages can only make a longing for the sea more intense. Happy cruising. -- Tampa Tribune, 12/6/98 Many of Ellis' most memorable paintings are ordinary scenes we might not notice if the artist had not rendered them so beautifully. "I am thrilled to leave this legacy of the country I love so much," Ellis writes. It is a legacy we can all be grateful for. -- Island Packet, Hilton Head Island, SC, August 9, 1998

I love the way Ray Ellis paints. Not only are there wonderful paintings, but I get to experience places I have not visited.

I enjoyed the Books,Thanks!
