Having studied Fine Art at the Slade School, London, Susie Johns began her publishing career as a magazine and partworks editor before becoming a freelance writer and designer. She is the author of more than 30 craft books on a range of subjects including knitting, crochet, papier mache and embroidery. Susia has also contributed to a number of magazines and has made several television appearances demonstrating various crafts. She particularly enjoys art and craft activities that involve recycling and reinventing. Susie is a qualified teacher and runs workshops in drawing and painting, knitting and crochet, embroidery, and 3D design. She is the founding member of the East Greenwich knitting group, 'Knitting Night at The Pelton'. Read her blog at: www.susieatthecircus.typepad.com.

UK publication but translated to US instructions. Beautifully knit little critters. I consider myself a beginning intermediate. If I am highly motivated (which I am with these critters) I've learned I can knit just about anything - even if I have to start over and over multiple times, which I often do. Must know how to knit "in the round", meaning knitting with three or four double pointed needles so as to create a tube-like shape. Don't let my comments dissuade you from buying this book and buying your yarn at your local yarn shop where they will help you get through the difficult parts.

I've knitted several of the animals. Directions are easy to follow. Animals are CUTE!

The illustrations are very beautiful and the instructions very clear. The animals are charming and I can't wait to finish my first one.

Darling toys for little ones. Leftovers can be used , colors can be changed, the animals can be either realistic or fantasy .

These are adorable, and patterns are well written and easy to follow

These creatures are just the right knitted gifts for little people. And lots of fun to make. Instructions were clear and concise; the animals were fun to make, too.

This book was adorable. Filled with darling creatures to knit and fun facts about the animals. Great book!

So cute and pretty easy to knit :) the snail is my favorite
