Mark Getlein arrived in New York to pursue advanced music studies at the Juilliard School, but he quickly became equally fascinated by the city's vibrant downtown art scene and magnificent museum collections. For a decade or so he led an interesting but precarious life as a pianist and painter. As a writer and development editor, he has helped to create a series of ground-breaking college textbooks in art and literature, including Art History (Abrams, 1995), A History of Art in Africa (Abrams, 2001), The HarperCollins World Reader, The Longman Anthology of British Literature, and The Longman Anthology of World Literature. This is his fourth edition as author of Living with Art.

Loved my art class and this textbook. It is very detailed and contains a lot of information I found useful for my course. It has a lot of pictures and every lesson contains extra information about a certain artist.

Used this for my Art class and actually enjoyed it! Great read!

Great rental program. Highly recommend.

Good book. Easy to follow.

Perfect!! A few writing on the pages but nothing that will stop me from doing my work so this works for me!

aaa+++

Daughter needed this ASAP for her college class and we got it very quickly, thanks!

I rented this book for my art class and I love it. the book is in excellent condition! I literally have to read the whole book but so far so good. Even though I am not all that into art, the book makes it interesting enough that you get sucked in it. definitely will be renting more books.
