Customer Reviews

This book is tiny, like a small paperback. A quarter of the puzzles are sudoku, a quarter crosswords, a quarter word search, and a quarter different (more interesting, in my opinion) word puzzles.

Fun games, but some of the math games have mistakes in the answers. Some are typos, but one is an order of operations mistake. You would think they'd have a math person proof read.

This is a small thick book.... a little awkward to handle but it has a sturdy spine. To date, I have done about 6 puzzles from each section. The reason for only 3 stars is that, having only done a small number of puzzles, I have found several errors including typos, clues left out, and oddly written instructions on logic puzzles.

Nice size book for traveling and nice variety. I did not give it 5 stars because of its lack of flexibility.

It is difficult to get to some of the puzzles that fall in the fold.

Unlike most reviewers, I really didn't care for this book. It's small size means that most of the puzzles are 3" square, requiring sharp eyes and an even sharper pencil. Virtually all of the crosswords were synonyms (ie not much in the way of "city in Italy" or "symbol for sodium") which I found boring.

Chock full of good stuff to occupy the mind, though physically, the book is perhaps a bit too compact as it requires some effort to hold it open while writing in it. Easy enough on a table. Not so easy in the passenger seat of a car, or train/plane, etc.

Bought these for the kids but had to give them to the adults. Thought they were easier then they looked to be. Still lots of fun if you like mind games.

Got this as a little side gift for my grandson, who loves these types of games. I think it fit the bill
