I really love to travel and I want to go to Belgium next year. I am browsing a guide book about Belgium and I got this book. I really appreciate how this book written because it is very understandable and easy to read. This book gave the local tourist information that I need to know. While reading this book, my excitement goes up because I saw the beauty of Belgium. This book taught me the overview about Brussels. I think I am ready now to go to Brussels, Belgium!

This is handy guide that will make your 5-day travel to Brussels Belgium well worth-it, and well-spent. It provides excellent tips on what to do the moment you step into this beautiful city, get to know its greeting etiquette, its means of transportation. the places to dine and shops, tourist attractions, great bars and clubs among other things that you don't want to miss.

I have never been to this place though I really wanted to enjoy the scenery , their food as well as their amazing attractions. My friend suggested this to me and just so glad that this book has all the things I need to know . I want a hassle free travel so a guide is a good way for me to enjoy the place so well. A good catch and so useful!

One of the best city to travel is Brussels, Belgium. A great way to plan for a vacation is to have a travel guide book. This book will help us get the most of our vacation in this beautiful city. We gets ideas on where to go to, where to stay and where to eat. It should be in every travelers pocket.

I haven't see Brussels but I can say now what will be needed to visit Brussels, how will I go there, what will I see, etc. It awoke my eagerness to have a trip to Brussels. Easy writing style makes it an excellent guide.

A useful and inexpensive starting point. I will have to pay more for a guide with more maps and more information about museums and food.

This is a place I'am curious to visit. Thanks to the Authors I feel more Confident on embarking on a Journey to Belguim.

Too simple and short and not well organized.
