Customer Reviews

As a resident of the Pittsburgh area I was excited to see this book for Kindle. I am both a minor medium and a practicing witch. My husband is an empath and highly fascinated by the paranormal. So I thought making a weekend out of "ghosthunting" the city would be fun. I had hoped this book could point us towards some places or stories which we were unaware of. unfortunately however, every place listed is rather well known in the paranormal circuit - a few of which are pretty much given to be on a list like this as they are hospitals with numerous tragic deaths taking place within them. Had the list focused on smaller, more accessible and less obvious places it would have been a much better book.

The book was not well written and the grammar is shoddy. It seems like the stories aren't anything but shallow accounts of local legends.

great book that will help in planning a vacation trip to Pennsylvania. lot of history to learn there.
