Montana Ranger (Brotherhood Protectors Book 5)

Synopsis

A former Army Ranger's first civilian assignment is to protect a spunky physical therapist from an unknown threat at a rehab ranch for disabled veterans. Forced into medical retirement, Army Ranger Alex "Taz" Davila takes a job in the wilds of Montana with the Brotherhood Protectors. First assignment: undercover protection of a pretty physical therapist on a veteran's rehab ranch. Living her dream job, Hannah Kendricks helps wounded warriors and abused horses at a rehab ranch for veterans. Finally in a position for a little romance, she suffers a set back when strange accidents nearly get her killed. Her lagging libido gets a kickstart when a sexy new patient starts following her, always there when she turns around. Before long, she realizes he's the only thing standing between her and whoever is after her. Accepting his offer to protect her, Hannah encounters a new problem. She's attracted to the man! Together they struggle to determine who wants to hurt her and why, while fighting the growing attraction they are helpless to resist.

Hannah is a double Masters Therapist who runs Brighter Days Rehab Ranch in Montana. "She is gutsy, determined, and sexy." The ranch is a place for wounded warriors to "regain mobility and some semblance of a life worth living". The ranch also saves and rehabilitates orphaned or injured or neglected horses. Hannah is easy to love; she is respected and admired by those who know her. So who wants to kill her? Alex Davila, AKA Taz, is a former Army Ranger with TBI which has many symptoms, including headache, memory loss, and sudden anger. When he was injured by a grenade, three of his Ranger team were killed. He has a feeling there is something about that mission that he is supposed to remember, but, so far he hasn't. Meanwhile, he has recovered physically and is starting to work as an agent for Brotherhood Protectors. His first assignment is to covertly join the Brighter Days Rehab Ranch as a "patient", protect Hannah, and find out who is trying to kill her. This storyline is a unique, mysterious who's-doing-it, with more than one bad guy, and you will be hard pressed to figure it out ahead of time! I love being challenged like that. The romance is explosive and sensual! The Author, Elle James, knows how to captivate the readers with full-bodied characters who seem real. This is a quick, engrossing and vastly enjoyable read!

I love the concept of a ranch where veterans can regain their sense of ability to fit in and be productive without judgement. At the same time, they're caring for rescued horses; a win-win situation, if you ask me! One would think a woman such as Hannah would have no enemies, but such is not the case. Taz has been hired to keep her safe - not easy, she's prone to darting off to rescue something! They make a delightful couple. Finding out why her life is in danger is quite a challenge. It's very exciting reading and kept me reading into the wee hours! A well done book!

Elle James - Montana Ranger - (Brotherhood Protectors Series - Book 5) Ex-Army Ranger Alex Taz Davila was forced into retirement and now works for the Brotherhood Protectors in Montana. His first assignment is to protect Hanna Kendrick who is a physical therapist on a rehab ranch for disabled veterans. She also helps abused horses for the veterans. After strange accidents continue to plague her so Alex's assignment is undercover and he is not to tell Hanna. He takes on the role as another one of Hanna's wounded veteran. They both try to ignore their attraction to each other. They both try to figure out who is trying to kill her before it's too late. Another fast-paced mystery with hot white passion that will take your breath away. Don't miss this one!

Alex "Taz" Davila is the newest member recruited to the Brotherhood Protectors. Can he protect Hannah? She's hard working, furiously independent therapist; but suspicious accidents are happening and there is trouble in the family. This Brotherhood Protectors are some really good men!!!

I enjoyed reading this book, it has a little bit of humor suspense and riveting excitement that will keep you turning pages and cheering for the good guys and a very strong, beautiful and courageous woman who fight for those who cannot fight for themselves. The settings for this book is beautiful and breath taking. If you love reading about strong and courageous men and women than this book is for you. An outstanding and well balanced book.

This is another great story about the faith and trust you have in each other and the people who you care about and try to protect..This story keeps you reading and smiling and wondering w ho g he and guy could be..

Hannah runs a ranch for wounded veterans and rescue horses. Lately there have been some accidents on the ranch that can't be explained. Taz has just been hired by the Brotherhood Protectors and his first case is to investigate the accidents. Can Taz find who is trying to kill Hannah? Will Taz be able to regain his memory? Will Taz and Hannah go on a real date?

The Brotherhood Protection Service has put together an elite team of former military personnel that are no longer able to serve. However their skills are still useful in the small Montana town where celebrities have built homes and need bodyguards. So not so famous people also need protection. Can't wait to read the next one in the series.....
