Gr 5-8-Focusing on different soccer teams, these books all open with the same overview of the sport, followed by an outline of historic events, such as the Spanish Civil War and World War II, that have shaped the team's history. FC Barcelona and Real Madrid's intense rivalry has its origins in 1714, when those loyal to King Philip V conquered Barcelona. The dense prose is balanced by well-labeled photos, time lines, and short biographies of outstanding players. VERDICT North American soccer fans will welcome these serviceable additions. I love it.

My 9 year old son is a HUGE fan of Bayern Munich and I purchased this for his recently birthday. He loves it - it's paperback but the front and back are heavyweight and glossy so it's protected and pretty sturdy. Though I haven't read it, I've thumbed through it and it seems to be chock full of great information and photos. Unfortunately just a few days after receiving it and yes, reading it 2 or 3 times, the binding started to come apart and a couple of pages fell out. My son isn't hard on books (we cherish books in our family and his HP series is still ok and he's read them multiple times). I was going to tape them back but before I did, I reached out to let the seller know what happened. He was kind enough to replace the book for me. This replacement book is holding up well. If you are a Bayern Munich fan or know someone who is, I'd recommend.
